To celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Summer of Love in Monterey, the City has teamed up with the Monterey County Convention and Visitors Bureau (MCCVB) to create and support fun and exciting musical performances, art exhibitions and special events in and around the Monterey Peninsula.

Be on the lookout starting in May and lasting the entire summer for "groovy" exhibits, "outta sight" events and "far out" decorations that will take you back in time to the 1960's.

Monterey's Summer of Love will be highlighted by the Monterey International Pop Festival on June 16, 17 and 18 at the Monterey County Fair & Event Center. The 1967 Monterey International Pop Festival changed music history forever and is credited as the beginning of the "Summer of Love". The Festival influenced future outdoor concerts, including the iconic Woodstock Music Festival two years later.

Just a few of the exciting Summer of Love highlights include:

- May 12: "Monterey Pop" Film Screening at the Golden State Theatre
- June 2 - Sep 18: "Who Shot Monterey Pop! Photographs from the 1967 Music Festival" at the Monterey Museum of Art
- June 16 - 18: Monterey International Pop Festival

From the City Manager's Office - Mike's Perspective

BY CITY MANAGER MIKE MCCARTHY

I wanted to take a moment to thank you, our residents, neighbors, and businesses of Monterey. Together, we have been transforming our City, and the transformation process can be very challenging. As we walk, bicycle or drive in Monterey, we see a number of initiatives happening through community support and collaborative partnerships.

For example, our Neighborhood Improvement Program (NIP), funded by the hotel tax, has generated projects all throughout our neighborhoods and City, exceeding more than $60 million since its inception—there are no other programs like it across the state or country. With over a 74% voter approval, you allowed a 1% sales tax for a four year term. A little more than two years in, the results are visible with hundreds of street segments re-surfaced, dozens of sidewalks repaired, all storm drains functional again and ADA accessible ramps being installed. Our sewer rehabilitation program is coming to an end shortly after restoring all failing pipes and manholes. Thank you for being the generation with the foresight and willingness to reinvest in our failing infrastructure.

The Conference Center is another example of our successful "Monterey Way" – understanding that a filled conference center is an economic engine for all of our hospitality industries, the hotels and motels decided to fund the restoration of this building. A new, iconic building is taking shape and will soon be open for business. We all will be proud of this building!

Our Sports Center is welcoming approximately 3,000 visitors per day – now in its 25th year of operation. Built as a family-oriented sports center, it still has the look and feel of a brand-new state-of-the-art facility. Join us as we celebrate its 25th birthday on June 1.

Downtown Monterey's transformation is almost complete: more than a dozen of new businesses have opened around the re-born Golden State Theater and the new TJ Work Building. The restoration of Cooper Molera has started and very soon this historic site will become a new anchor of our downtown.

Our team is proud to serve you. We continue to address other issues such as affordable housing, economic development, public safety, homelessness and traffic congestion. And, while we do all this, we continue to offer robust and competitive recreation programs and library services. Our Public Works crews are responsive and they lived up to your expectations during the recent winter storms. Our parks and beaches are pristine, making all of us appreciate our unique location here in California.

Thank you again for allowing me to lead our team.

Budget Update

BY FINANCE DIRECTOR JULIE PORTER

The City has weathered the Conference Center renovation on remarkable footing with an ending balance in FY16 of over $4 million and a projected operating surplus this year. Our hotels have continued to maintain growth in occupancy and rates, translating to increasing hotel tax. Along with a rising property tax base and a stable sales tax, Monterey has been able to maintain a strong revenue base.

Some challenges exist for the next biennial budget cycle. Changes by the CalPERS Board of Administration to actuarial formulas will result in a significant increase to the City's cost for retirement benefits. Significant capital improvement needs remain for our city buildings and facilities. We will also be reevaluating our current reserves to be ready to withstand catastrophic or economic events.

The next Biennial budget is scheduled for Council presentation on May 24 and potential adoption June 6, 2017. We encourage you to attend and participate in this process.

Current Budget

A Biennium budget is a two year budget. The fiscal year (FY) runs from July 1 to June 30. The current budget is for FY 2015 - 2017. Learn more on the Budget page at monterey.org/finance

State of the City 2017 - In case you missed it - #ICYMI

The annual State of the City takes place each March, hosted by the Monterey Commercial Property Owners Association, the Monterey County Hospitality Association, the Monterey Peninsula Chamber of Commerce, and the Old Monterey Business Association.

Monterey Mayor Clyde Roberson and City Manager

Michael McCarthy talk about the current status of and future goals for Monterey's economy, tourism, military, housing, infrastructure and development, and other important topics.

The public is invited but in case you missed it, here's a video of this year's State of the City address.

Neighborhood Improvement Program Schedule

There's more to go in this season's Neighborhood Improvement Program (NIP). Project selection is scheduled to go to the City Council on April 27. Then there are three more meetings you can participate in before the final selection of projects gets presented to Council on June 20.

Contact the Engineering Office with any questions, (831) 646-3921, or view the NIP Meeting Schedule at monterey.org/NIP.

Grants bring walking and biking safety programs to life

BY TRANSPORTATION PLANNER STEFANIA CASTILLO

Remember when you saw those teenagers riding their bikes without helmets? Or when that kid just dashed across the intersection against the light? Remember how your heart skipped a beat as that car zipped past you? I bet you were thinking “that is not safe!”

The City of Monterey earned two highly competitive grants from the California Office of Traffic Safety (OTS) in the amount of $110,000 in November 2015 and $74,000 in October 2016. The first grant launched Walk & Bike Safe in Monterey – an interactive public education program focusing on educating children and seniors as safe pedestrians and bicyclists.

Hundreds of young children received their first safety messages at over 20 fun Walk & Bike Safe events in Monterey events. Parents left better equipped to be active role models and mentors in traffic safety for their children. In the first year, the program successfully reached over 3,000 children who were trained to safely cross the street and ride their bikes. Furthermore, over 10,000 residents, visitors and seniors were engaged. Over 4,000 coloring books, safety brochures, bike lights, reflective snap bracelets and 700 bike helmets were distributed. To learn more about this program, visit the Walk & Bike Safe page.

The program's successful kick-off year paved the way to seek additional funding to continue providing and pursuing innovative traffic safety efforts. The second grant will help fund Walk & Bike Safe in Monterey for another year and kick start Vision Zero Monterey – an international road traffic safety movement rooted in the philosophy that loss of life from traffic crashes is not acceptable or inevitable. Vision Zero encourages us to imagine a future in which we can prevent fatal and injury crashes, prioritizing safety over all other interests. The City of Monterey is working to develop a Vision Zero Action Plan. To learn more, visit the Vision Zero page.

Through these efforts, we hope to inspire others – both at home and elsewhere – to bike and walk safely.

SAME SERVICE AS ALWAYS

Electricity Delivery
PG&E provides transmission,

YOUR COMMUNITY CHOICE

A Greener Electricity Option
You can choose MBCP for cleaner energy, stable prices and local jobs.

The Mayor and Council voted unanimously to move ahead as a member in the Community Choice Energy Program. What does this mean for you? You will have an opportunity to choose to stay with PG&E, or to move to alternative energy choices.

Monterey Bay Community Power is a regional project among local government agencies that aims to provide electricity to residents and businesses throughout Monterey, San Benito and Santa Cruz Counties through the Community Choice Energy (CCE) model. CCE enables communities to choose clean-source power at a cost equivalent to PG&E, while retaining PG&E's role in maintaining power lines and providing customer service.

The CCE model helps ensure local economic vitality keeping money from rates paid by local customers stays local. Surplus revenues that would normally flow to PG&E will stay in the community to help fund renewable energy projects, create jobs and stimulate the economy.

Spring cleanup for fire safety

BY FIRE PREVENTION TECHNICIAN KATHLEEN BATTAGLIA

Spring is here and your thoughts may be turning to that dreaded ritual of spring cleaning. With it comes a timely reminder to keep your home safe from the threat of fire. In an effort to make this "Spring Cleanup" a fire safe one, Monterey Fire Department provides the following safety tips:

- Ensure smoke alarms are installed inside every bedroom, outside each sleeping area and on every level of the home, including the basement.
- Smoke alarms with non-replaceable 10-year batteries are designed to remain effective for up to 10 years. If the alarm chirps, warning that the battery is low, replace the entire smoke alarm right away.
- Smoke alarms with any other type of battery need a new battery at least once a year. If an alarm "chirps," warning the battery is low, replace the battery right away.
- Test your smoke alarms monthly by pushing the test button.
- To help prevent nuisance alarms, gently vacuum your smoke alarm every six months or as needed.
- Replace all smoke alarms every 10 years or as recommended by the manufacturer.
- Change batteries in flashlights and carbon monoxide detectors.
- Clean your garage of stored newspapers or other rubbish that can fuel a fire.
- Clean the lint filter before or after each load of laundry. Remove lint that has collected around the drum.
- Keep the area around your dryer clear of things that can burn, like boxes, cleaning supplies and clothing.
- Check electrical cords to make sure they are not running across doorways or under carpets. Extension cords are intended for temporary use.
- Have a qualified electrician add more receptacle outlets so you do not have to use extension cords.
- Keep outdoor debris or dead vegetation away from the house.
- Remove all dead plants, grass and weeds.
- Remove dead or dry leaves and pine needles from your yard, roof and rain gutters.
- Keep tree branches 10 feet away from your chimney and other trees.
- Properly dispose of oily or greasy rags. If these items must be stored, they should be kept in labeled, sealed, metal containers.

- If you store gasoline, keep it outside your home in a shed or detached garage. Keep only small quantities in tightly sealed containers. Use gasoline only as a motor fuel - never as a cleaning agent.
- Use outdoor barbecue grills with caution. Place in a safe area away from building, windows, heating, ventilation and air conditioning units or places with high/dead vegetation.
- Never use gasoline to start the fire, and don't add charcoal lighter fluid once the fire has started.
- Use barbecue grills outside only - not under overhangs or balconies, and away from combustibles.
- Check your propane barbecue grill hose for leaks and cracks; never store propane indoors.

If you have any questions or would like clarification on any fire safety tips please call Monterey Fire Department at (831) 646-3900.

Ocean Safety

BY LIEUTENANT
ETHAN ANDREWS

MontereyPolice.org

With warmer weather upon us many people will be flocking to the beach for sun, sand, and surf. Keep in mind these tips to ensure your time at the beach is a safe one.

Swimming in the ocean takes different skills, so before you get your feet wet, it's best to learn how to swim in the surf. While you're enjoying the water, keep alert and check the local weather conditions. Make sure you swim sober and never swim alone. Even if you're confident in your swimming skills, make sure you have enough energy to swim back to shore.

Other beach safety tips to keep in mind:

- Have young children or inexperienced swimmers wear U.S. Coast Guard-approved life jackets in and the around water.
- Don't dive headfirst — protect your neck. Check for depth and obstructions before diving, and go in feet first the first time.

- Pay especially close attention to children and elderly persons when at the beach. Even in shallow water, wave action can cause a loss of footing.
- Keep a lookout for aquatic life. Water plants and animals may be dangerous. Avoid patches of plants. Leave animals alone.

The Northern Salinas Valley Mosquito District was established in 1950 for the residents of the Northern Monterey County. NSVMAD is an Independent Special District much like a Fire District, which is trained to control bugs that can make people sick.

"Protecting people and pets from disease is our main priority," said District Manager, Ken Klemme. "We encourage everyone to call our office if they notice mosquitos around their home. We consult and educate residents along with treating for mosquitos or larvae. Many people wonder about the products we use to control the larvae, and we are proud to say we use products that are organic and typically target only mosquito larvae."

Because of the abundance of rain we have received this year, mosquito officials have been extremely busy. They recommend people drain containers left with standing water around local homes. If residents would like to keep water in rain collection devices, they should call for free mosquito fish or install a screen on containers to keep mosquitos out.

Our technicians are checking common mosquito sources on a daily basis, but also rely on residents to report any suspicious water that may breed mosquitos. After almost seven decades of service within our district, education and community involvement are at the forefront of our mission to keep residents informed and safe from mosquito borne illnesses.

A new "Little Library" was proudly unveiled in Montecito Park in early February. The Little Library contains books for all ages to borrow and bring back, 24-hours a day, seven-days a week. The Little Library was a gift of the Friends of the Monterey Public Library and is maintained by the Bookmobile staff, which visits the site weekly as a regular part of their rounds.

There are over a dozen Little Libraries on the Monterey Peninsula, some of them registered with the non-profit organization "Little Free Libraries" which "inspires a love of reading, builds community, and sparks creativity by fostering neighborhood book exchanges around the world." There are also many other informal book exchanges operating locally in front yards, physician's offices, coffee houses and other sites where people might look for reading material. In Monterey, there are two Little Libraries in public parks - one in Via Paraiso Park, and now, one in Montecito Park. They all share the goal of making free books readily accessible to readers of all ages and backgrounds.

For the ribbon cutting ceremony for the new "Little Library" in Montecito Park, a throng of nearby residents joined in the celebration at what is growing into one of the more active and popular Bookmobile stops in Monterey's outlying areas. This is one of the first steps in a more comprehensive plan, funded by the Neighborhood Improvement Program, to develop the park with ball courts, landscaping and other amenities.

Meanwhile, Bookmobile staff and the Recreation division are discussing possible ideas for a more a holistic program of service at Montecito Park during summer months, when the neighborhood children do not have access to resources available to them at school.

To learn more about how the library, the City and the Friends continue working to build a community of readers, visit us on the web at monterey.org/library.

From totally different eyes

BY INTERN NICOLE SONNENTAG, UNIVERSITY STUDENT IN GERMANY

Every year a few students at the public administrative University in South Germany get the opportunity to do an internship abroad in the City Hall of Monterey.

Doing an internship abroad is a long process for the interns and for the City of Monterey. It takes months to prepare all the different papers and go through the process of application to get a visa for the USA.

The students in our University are allowed to do an internship abroad, in any country they like, if they are able to speak the national language of the country. You have to find a work place and apply for your internship by yourself. There is no mediation by the university and you can choose an office you like to see.

The City of Monterey offers a good opportunity for people who are interested in coming to the USA. Monterey has a really good reputation among the students. From a former interns recommendation I decided to apply for an internship in the City of Monterey and I was luckily accepted.

After your internship offer you have to search and select an agency for completing your application process for getting a visa. You have to give them a lot of information and documents about yourself. The city has to complete paperwork and collect documents including a training plan.

Once everything is done, a business place of the agency in the US proofs your application and if everything is alright you get a first form then the possibility for applying for a visa form. You start your application online and at the end of the process there is an interview at a consulate in Germany.

I was really nervous about the language test and interview at the consulate. In addition, I had to answer so many questions for the visa application and I had to complete several documents and gather lots of information. The whole process was really exciting and often very challenging for me.

All interns have to coordinate the travel by themselves. You have to organize the transportation, accommodation and all of which are necessary if you are going to another country. But the City of Monterey is, throughout the process, a fantastic supporter and if you really want to do something, there is always a way.

I am really happy about my experience preparing and now experiencing this exciting internship abroad. Without a doubt it keeps me going for the future. I have more self confidence and security in the things I do. In addition, I learn many necessary things for doing my work better and get a different view about dealing with problems and finding solutions. Furthermore I have the possibility to see and learn so much about Monterey and California. It is just amazing!

The City Communications Staff came up with a questionnaire to learn more about our visiting German interns. Here are a couple of Nicole's answers to our questions:

What were your first impressions when you arrived in Monterey and what do you think is different to your German city, region or people?

NICOLE: In the first hours I felt like being part of an American movie. Some things are absolutely different. Many roads, cars and other things are much bigger than in Germany. It was really exciting to see it. I was really impressed by the beautiful nature here. The coast, the animals, and the plants - it is just awesome. I really enjoyed seeing the sea otters cuddling and the blue birds enjoying their days. I am not used to being at an ocean, so I appreciate the sea breeze and the amazing colors of the water as often I can.

What differences do you notice working in an American office in contrast to German offices?

NICOLE: In my opinion they are very similar in most things, with the exception of voice mail and social media for communication. I know no German city or town hall which uses voice mail. Furthermore, many German cities are afraid of their security by using social media. Therefore it was a great experience to work with social media in Monterey.

Monterey Recreation is happy to announce the brand new and very first logo of our organization. After in-depth collaboration with Kelly McCay of McCay Design, we are excited to begin implementing our new identity design as we promote our programs and services. We feel the new visual identity as a whole (logo, color palette, icons, and typography) captures the mission of Monterey Recreation, and will be an excellent identifier of our organization on all of our outreach materials. We are excited about this new opportunity to continue getting the word out about how important the concept of play! is in our daily lives. We encourage everyone to play! Monterey.

The Summer/Fall 2017 issue of play! Monterey (good through November) is available now. Sign up for summer camps, field sports, aquatics, gymnastics, tot classes, dance, music and drama, arts and crafts programs and much more!
