Case Study - John Doe 1221 (December 2021)

In an effort to explain some of the challenges faced by the MPD in trying to problem solve through a variety of ways, these case studies highlight aspects that the MPD and partners in MDOT face while attempting to resolve issues. This month's case study provides another challenging example.

- The Monterey Police Department (MPD) has had 229 contacts with John Doe 1221 from 2016 through 2021. The contacts primarily include public intoxication, Monterey City Code violations, probation violations and warrants arrests. He is on probation and his conditions include obeying all laws, not drink or possess alcoholic beverages and abstain from alcohol and places where alcohol is sold. For a two-year period between 2019 and 2021, Doe 1221 had twenty cases dismissed for furtherance of justice on the charges of public intoxication and disturbing the peace.
- John Doe 1221 is a military veteran and has resources and benefits available to him, however, does not avail himself of the resources. MDOT and CAT have obtained clothing from the Veterans Transition Center (VTC) and brought them to Doe 1221, have transported him to Monterey County Social Services for assistance, transported him to file his taxes and transported him to the DMV to obtain an identification card. MDOT and CAT continuously discuss resources with John Doe 1221, but he primarily relates that he just wants to drink.
