

MONTHLY REPORT

MONTEREY POLICE DEPARTMENT

MPD Commendation

On November 14, 2021, an MPD officer responded to a report of a past-tense domestic violence incident that occurred in Monterey. The officer learned that the victim had been beaten and choked the day prior and was now staying at a hotel due to fear of returning home. While interviewing the victim, the suspect tried to learn the location of the victim through a phone application. Through further investigation, the officer located the suspect's residence in San Jose. The officer began communicating with the San Jose Police Department, who located the suspect's vehicle. The MPD officer completed a warrant for the suspect, which the on-call judge approved on the first request and complimented the officer for its thoroughness and completeness. San Jose PD ultimately arrested the subject the following day pursuant to the warrant. The MPD officer is commended for going above and beyond to ensure the suspect was apprehended.

Case Study - John Doe 1121 (November 2021)

In an effort to explain some of the challenges faced by the MPD in trying to problem solve through a variety of ways, these case studies highlight aspects that the MPD and partners in MDOT face while attempting to resolve issues. This month's case study provides another challenging example.

- John Doe 1121 arrived on the Peninsula around April of 2021 and has been contacted by police nineteen times since then. John Doe 1121 has had four psychiatric evaluation holds placed by the MPD and other peninsula LE agencies, since May 2021. Doe 1121 has had numerous police contacts and arrests with the Eugene (Oregon) Police Department. Since arriving to the Monterey area, the MPD has responded to calls for service with Doe 1121 because people are fearful of his erratic, unpredictable, and nonsensical behaviors. Incidents have occurred in both public and inside private businesses. Doe 1121 has been assaultive to police and emergency services personnel.
- Doe 1121 was honorably discharged from the military where his was a linguist. He is intelligent however suffers from mental health challenges. Doe 1121 was provided assistance through a veteran's program and was provided with housing and financial assistance. Doe 1121 was not allowed to continue in the program because he would not abide by the rules.
