Arrest – Domestic Violence Attempted
Homicide, stabbing

On April 1, 2020 at approximately 5:30 am, Monterey Police Department (MPD) Officers were dispatched to the Community Hospital of the Monterey Peninsula (CHOMP) for a report of a victim who had been stabbed. Prior to MPD arrival, the victim was transported to another local hospital and is expected to survive.

The MPD conducted an investigation and contacted a person the victim had a domestic relationship with, which led to the arrest of Lillian Marie Perry, 29 years old of Monterey. Perry was booked into the Monterey County Jail for attempted homicide, 664/187 California Penal Code, with bail set $500,000.

Anyone with additional information is asked to call Detective Michael Garcia at (831) 646 - 3814 or the confidential tip line at (831) 646-3840. For emergencies the public should always dial 911.
